

The New York Tribune made an exhibition of its spleen against the publishing house of the Appletons in its last week's literary columns. No personal affront to the editor could justify such an article, which was aimed as a blow at the business of the firm under the thin disguise of criticism.

An Indiana Congressman who has been investigating the subject, has come to the conclusion that the best and easiest way to detect frauds in pensions is to publish in the newspapers of each county, at stated intervals, the names of the pensioners in that locality, with the amounts received and the reasons why the pensions were granted. This would subject the list to the scrutiny of the public, and impostors could be easily detected. There are a good many arguments in favor of this scheme.

Heaven's First Law.—It is absolutely certain that the mental and physical laws of our nature should be kept in equilibrium. System and order must be recognized as fundamental; any departure entails sickness, disease and death, as penalties. To be healthy, beautiful and buoyant, the whole constitution must maintain regular action in all its component parts. A female who imprudently exposes herself and becomes prostrated with headache, pain in the back, fever, irregular or suppressed monthly action, with constipation and loss of appetite must be restored to regular action, must be revitalized, recuperated at once, and for this purpose nothing equals Dr. Dromgoole's English Female Bitters. It is prepared expressly for all such diseases.

The Century Magazine may now be considered fairly started on its way under the new name, and with the February (Midwinter) number, and the adoption of the new cover-design, by Ellhu Vepder, the name of Scribner's Monthly will no longer be continued as the sub-title. Since the change of name, there has been a decided increase in the sale of recent numbers of this magazine. The average edition during the last year of Scribner's Monthly was 12,000, while of the first four numbers of The Century it has been more than 132,000. Of December, a new edition of 9,000 was printed, and a new edition of the January issue is now called for. In England, 20,000 copies of November were sold, against an average of 16,250 for the twelve months preceding. The recent growth of St. Nicholas in England has been even greater in proportion; for while 3,000 copies were sufficient there a year ago, 8,000 and 10,000 copies are now needed every month.

The publishers are printing 135,000 copies of the Midwinter Century, which will be issued on the 21st instant.

Mr. Tilden is running for the Presidency with a good deal of vigor in several quarters. Montgomery Blair re-nominates him every few minutes, and a few Democratic newspapers in the West keep up a sort of chorus for Mr. Blair's solo. One of them, The Springfield Register, of Illinois, says there is little "prospect of inducing Mr. Tilden to allow himself again to be placed before the public as a candidate for the Presidency, but the people may yet demand it so loudly that he cannot refuse."

The idea of calling Montgomery Blair "the people's" is exceedingly ingenious. The Register continues: "His age, his political enemies, and again, his would-be no obstacle to his being President. He will be seventy years of age on the 9th of February, 1881. There was seventy-six when he resigned the Presidency of France. Palmerston was Premier of England at eighty-one; Emperor William of Prussia is eighty-five; Bismarck is a year younger than Tilden; Von Moltke is eighty-one; Disraeli ruled England at seventy-five, and Gladstone is in his seventy-fifth year.

Mr. Tilden is enjoying excellent health and bids fair for a vigorous life for ten years to come." What about John Kelley? He is pretty vigorous, too, isn't he?

B. D. QUIMBY.

Some one left a baby on Henry Ward Beecher's doorstep Monday night. He sent it to the city nursery.

The first sign of an Anti-Bourbon movement in South Carolina is at hand. A mass meeting of a 1,000 persons was held in Summerville, Colleton County, last Monday, to protest against certain measures passed by the Bourbon legislature. The leader of the movement was State Senator Fishburne, a lifelong Democrat. He said he was forced to cut loose from old party associations because the Democratic party of the State "desires to take away from us the right which is inherent in an American citizen—the right to vote. There are a great many laws passed and about to be passed, every single one of them taking away some right of a citizen of South Carolina, so that one will follow the other until they will give you nothing in God's world but the right to die."

A declaration of principles was presented by Senator Fishburne and adopted, favoring the payment of the State and National debts, and declaring that the colored voters shall be fully protected in their rights. Mr. Fishburne says the meeting is but the beginning of a general movement which will extend throughout the State, its object being the disruption of the present Democratic organization and the formation of a new party whose aim shall be a free ballot and a fair count.

A few days ago The Vicksburg Herald, one of the most outspoken and liberal Democratic journals published in the South, said it believed it could honestly shake hands with its friends in the North on the proposition that every citizen in the Republic should be justly treated in all respects. Very few of us have a preliminary to the handshaking, will the Herald give us an honest answer to this question: Did the Bourbons of Mississippi carry the state at the last election by fair means or foul? The chairman of the combined Anti-Bourbon committees declare that a fair election and an honest count would have elected their candidate for Governor by 10,000 majority. What has the Herald to say about that?

We have watched carefully for an admission on the part of Senator Sherman's accusers that they were mistaken and have found only one. The Chicago Tribune, which took stock in the charges, says frankly that they have fallen to pieces before the careful dissection of the investigating committee, and that the "statements made by the originators and disseminators that they were backed by proofs in their possession have apparently proved to be baseless." The mud-slingers will never admit as much as this, but they will rest long enough to free themselves from their own shower before they will begin business again.

The list of Southern Democratic state-men who believe the Democratic party is in the throes of dissolution is becoming long and impressive—A. Kim, of Tennessee, Sprer and Felton, of Georgia, Coke and Jones, of Texas, Mackey, of South Carolina, and Ellis, of Louisiana. These have declared their faith openly. How many more are they who feel the same way but are not yet prepared to speak out?

It is said that 7,000 negroes in South Carolina have agreed to join the present "exodus" to Arkansas, and whole neighborhoods are being depopulated. People in the state are a good deal stirred up by the affair, and the Charleston News and Courier wants the reasons for the movement uncovered and reforming remedies applied. It thinks the state has no population to lose.

Seven eminent Southern Democratic statesmen have expressed it as their solemn conviction that the Democratic party is hopelessly broken up, and not a single Northern Democratic newspaper seems to have noticed their observations. The able editors should get somebody to "call their attention" to the news of the day.

A member of the Ohio Legislature endeavored to have his wife appointed a deputy clerk to that body.

Afflicted with weaknesses peculiar to their sex should bear in mind that Leis' Dandelion Tonic persistently will effect a permanent cure. A Scotch druggist was aroused by the ringing of his night-bell. He arose, went down stairs, and served a customer with a dose of salts. His wife grumbled.

"What profit do you get out of that penny?" "A ha'penny," was the reply. "And for that ha'penny you'll be awake for a long time," rejoined the wife. "Aweel!" replied the placid druggist, "the dose of salts will keep him awake much longer—let us thank Heaven we have the profit and not the pain of the transaction."

Sarsaparilla

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effective alternative medicine known or available to the public. The science of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood, as Sarsaparilla. It cures all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-eruptions, Psoriasis, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetters, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruption which contaminates the blood and causes derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, restores energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impure blood need despair who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is fully to experiment with the numerous low-priced imitations of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a medicine of such constitutional curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unequalled confidence of millions whom it has benefited.

In his sermon in Plymouth Church Brooklyn, last Sunday, Mr. Beecher made a marked sensation by denying the existence of eternal punishment. He said:

"I believe in a future state of retribution, but I believe it is remedial. What the end will be I do not know, for I can't see the beginning, but that punishment will continue after it can no longer do good, or that it will be made everlasting, I do not believe. God do so to me, and more, if ever I preach that or countenance it in any way whatever. For God's own sake, for the sake of everything that reason, conscience and benevolence justify, I would clear God's skirts of every such aspersion. Punishment, so long as it continues to do good, then annihilation, if you believe it; but eternal punishment never."

Vest is fast making a national reputation by his speeches in the Senate. But what has become of Cockrell?—Republican.

Cockrell is making a reputation in the Senate which will leave him quite as well among the Democrats of Missouri as that achieved by Vest. His strong points are beauty and garden sass. He is the handsomest man in the Senate, and he keeps his constituents supplied with the latest variety of vegetable seeds. Then again he is a greater baby-kisser than Vest, and this is a strong point on the Democratic side in a Missouri campaign. By the way, Mr. Vest had better beware of this next competitor—Governor Crittenden—in this matter. Crittenden can be both hands behind him and kiss more babies than Vest with both hands loose.

The standing army of Germany is distributed all over the empire, and the following cities are garrisoned to a considerable extent: Berlin, 18,204; Metz, 10,723; Strasbourg, 8,945; Mayence, 6,369; Coblenz, 6,371; Magdeburg, 6,069; and Hanover, 5,368. The other garrisons in the country have not 5,000 each. The distribution of over 332,000 soldiers and the perfect police and espionage system make it decidedly dangerous and difficult for any movement to take place which is not sanctioned by the government.
